

ANDY TRUONG

COMPUTER SCIENCE STUDENT

EXPERIENCE

Front-end Developer & Product Manager

PCMarket | Dec 2020 - present

- Wrote scripts to automate basic tasks such as automatically uploading files to a database
- Partnered with designers to develop the front-end for landing page, product page, and search results page
- Utilised Neto API to develop applications to use internally
- Launched redesign of their Neto website using their B@SE tag library
- Implemented analytics tools for staff users to assess customer metrics
- Assessed UX and UI designs
- solved front and back-end issues

Teaching Assistant

Code Camp | Feb 2020

- Assisted in maintaining a classroom.
- Created a engaging learning space for children.
- One-to-one help to individual students during class.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Commonwealth Bank Virtual Experience Program Participant

Achieved in 2020

- Participated in open access Commonwealth Bank Virtual Experience Program with Forage
- Completed Software Engineering - Website Coding module

PERSONAL PROJECTS

iShouldStudy

- Web app designed to help students study and concentrate
- Developed the full functionality of the project
- Utilised React framework to develop UI and functions

vibes (WIP)

- Music recommendation platform built using React and Node.js
- Utilised Spotify API to fetch tracks and user info
- Collaborated in the design process and fully implemented the app

EDUCATION

Western Sydney University

Bachelor of Computer Science (2019 - 2022)

Bonnyrigg High School

Higher School diploma (2018)

SKILLS

- Javascript & Java
- Git
- React
- PHP
- Swift
- C/C++
- JSON/XML
- HTML & CSS
- SQL
- Android Studio